

Ryan Sheeler – Music Lesson Policy

1. Half-hour lessons are $20 a half hour. You may pay by the lesson, biweekly, or at the end of the month. The monthly balance is due by the end of each calendar month.
2. In the event a lesson needs to be changed or cancelled, please notify the instructor at the earliest convenience. Weekly lesson tuition fee will be charged for 'no-shows' (unaccounted/unexcused absences).
3. If a student is ill (cold, flu, etc.) please consider notifying the instructor ahead of your lesson time and re-schedule a makeup. The studio is a confined area where many other people teach and study; illnesses are easily transmittable in such an environment.
4. Regular practice is essential for improvement. Please commit yourself to practicing at regular intervals during the week. Repeated failure to practice and prepare for weekly assignments will result in parental notification (if applicable), and possible suspension of lessons.
5. Lessons can be terminated in the event of irregular attendance, repeated failure to prepare assigned materials, disruptive behavior, or continually late payment of tuition. In the event of TWO (2) consecutive unexcused/unaccounted absences, the student will be dropped, and the time slot given to the next prospective student.
